

INAMI-RIZIV

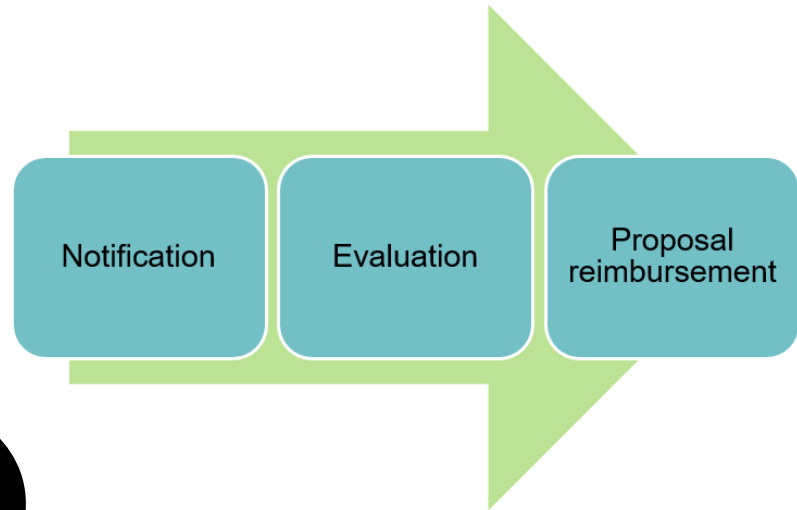

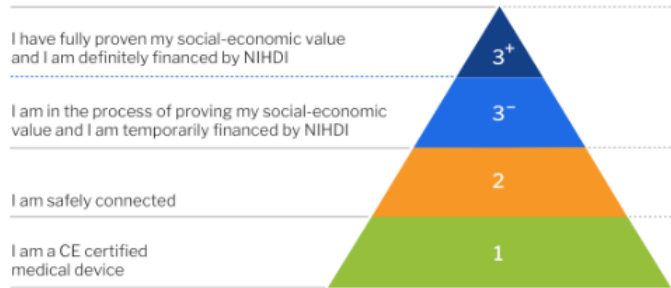

Reimbursement of mobile medical applications in Belgium

Ulla Cahay
Medical directorate
Department of Healthcare, NIHDI

INAMI-RIZIV

2021 – 10/2023: Validation pyramid

- Study by the Belgian Healthcare Knowledge Centre
- Evaluation with the different stakeholders

*San Miguel Lorena, Obyn Caroline, Vinck Imgard, de Meester Christophe, Jaspers Vicky, Pouppez Céline. Evaluation of Digital Medical Technologies. Health Technology Assessment (HTA). Brussels. Belgian Health Care Knowledge Centre (KCE). 2023. KCE Reports 362

INAMI-RIZIV

Barriers/challenges

Transparency

Interoperability

Data protection/security/use

Scope

Industry driven – interest health professional/patient?

Level of evidence?

Funding model not adjusted

No permanent core members

INAMI-RIZIV

New procedure

- ✓ Permanent core of members
- ✓ Reimbursement of a care pathway
- ✓ Structured evaluation of the demand
- ✓ Not only clinical (added) value, but also organisational (added) value
- ✓ Scientific organisations, professional organisations and hospitals can introduce a demand
- ✓ Target timeframe
- ✓ Possibility of temporary reimbursement